Secondary Director of Schools

Competitive Salary

Required for April 2022 (September 2022 would be considered)

L.E.A.D. Academy Trust is an inspiring and influential group of 25 academies across eight Local Authorities in the East Midlands and South Yorkshire. As part of our continued investment in delivering our ambition to transform schools in challenging communities, we are seeking to appoint a Secondary Director of Schools, to drive school improvement and raise standards across our 3 Secondary academies.

This role presents an unrivalled opportunity for an experienced and established school leader to work collaboratively with our academy leadership teams. The role involves designing and delivering a school improvement strategy which provides challenge and support, developing high performing teams, and embedding sustainable improvement which will lead to outstanding opportunities and outcomes for all pupils.

Our Directors of Schools understand the power of partnership and collaboration, and draw on their experience, and track record of school improvement to motivate and inspire others. They have the professional credibility of having delivered improved performance in both academic outcomes, and Ofsted judgements, in schools which they have led.

The successful candidate will be able to:

- Articulate a clear vision for school improvement with a deep understanding of Secondary provision.
- Translate and embed strategies for improvement across our Secondary academies, all of which have their own distinct identity and community.
- Embed an ethos of high expectations by inspiring leadership at all levels.
- Create a culture of collaboration by further developing networks across the Trust as well as actively participating in networks and exploring opportunities to engage and work with other organisations for the benefit of our academies.
- Create a climate where all staff and all students have the highest of expectations and belief that opportunity and excellence should be equitable for everyone.

Further information about the Trust and the role is available in the Candidate Information Pack or if you would like to discuss the role in more detail before applying, please email Danielle.west@leadacademytrust.co.uk.
